THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From SATURDAY December 19, to SATURDAY December 26, 1741.

WHITEHALL, September 29.

CAPT. Ambroſe, Commander of his Majeſty's Ship the Rupert, writes Word, that as he was cruiſing off Cape Machiacaca, on the 18th Inſt. in the Evening, he ſaw a Sail from the Maſt-head to Windward, which he chaſed all that Night and the next Day, and about Eleven at Night came up with her, and after ſome Reſiſtance, (the Rupert not being able to open her lower Tier of Guns, by Reaſon of their running a great Sea) took her. She is the largeſt Privateer belonging to St Sebaſtian, call'd the Duke de Vendome, of 26 Carriage Guns, and 202 Men, the Captain is one Don Martin de Arreneder, a Frenchman, and moſt of the Crew of Foreign Nations; there were 19 Engliſh, Scotch and Iriſh on board, who ſay, they were taken out of Priſon, and forced by the Intendant to proceed on the Cruiſe. The Captain of the Prize and 29 Men were killed; and 20 ſo wounded, that few of them can recover. The Rupert had but one Man kill'd, another his Hand ſhot off, and three ſlightly wounded. The Prize is a new Ship off the Stocks, of the Dimenſions of our 20 Gun Frigates, had been but three Days out of Port, and was compleatly fitted with a great Quantity of ſmall Arms, Cutlaſſes, and Pole Axes, all new. She ſails exceeding well, Capt. Ambroſe having chaſed her 218 Miles before he came up with her. Three Days before Capt. Ambroſe chaſed another Privateer of St. Sebaſtian, called (as he has been ſince informed) the Cormo, of 18 Guns, and 200 Men, but by flinging over her Guns, Boats, Water Casks, Proviſions and Lumber, and by the Favour of a very dark Night, ſhe eſcaped. Capt. Ambroſe ranging along the Coaſt of France in his Return, met with an Iriſh Brigantine from the Weſt Part of Ireland, laden with Wool, and bound to Nantz, which he ſeized, and has brought her, with the other Prize into Plymouth.

LONDON, September 24.

We hear that the Project of ratifying the Air in his Majeſty's Ships of War, by the Fire from the Cook room, has met with general Approbation, and will be immediately put into Practice; and 'tis not doubted will ſave the Lives of Thouſands.

Sept. 26. It is currently reported that an Expreſs is arrived, with Advice, that the Breſt Fleet, conſiſting of 16 Men of War, was ſail'd for the Havannah, in order to bring Home the Treaſure of Admiral de Torres's Fleet, from that Place.

This Morning the Hon. Benjamin Wentworth, Eſq; lately appointed Governor of New Hampſhire, in the room of Jonathan Belcher, Eſq; ſet out for Graveſend, to embark on board the Earl of Gainsborough, Capt Cary, for Boſton in New-England, in order to proceed to his Government.

We hear that the Camp at Lexden Heath, near Colcheſter, will break up next Tueſday

The laſt French Mail brings a Confirmation of ſome of Admiral Haddock's Squadron having taken two Ships, laden with Cocoa, from the Canaries, for Cadiz.

Sept. 29. The Pizzaro, a Spaniſh Man of War, from La Vera Cruz, was loſt near that Place, coming for the Havannah, which had a great Quantity of Treaſure on Board.

The Goſport Man of War, Capt Robert Ellis, with the two Store ſhips and Merchant-Men for New-York, ſail'd from Spithead on Friday Night laſt. Governor Clinton, who was to embark on board the ſaid Man of War, will not go for that Province till next Spring.

October 1. By a private Letter from Lizbon, dated Auguſt 30, we are inform'd that two Salleeteens have taken four Spaniſh Privateers and ſunk two more on that Coaſt. There are ſix lying there which can't ſtir out for Fear of the Salleeteens, which are of great Service to the Engliſh Nation and keep the Coaſt clear.

On Tueſday came Advice that the Diamond, Capt. Hoar, bound for New England, from Briſtol, was in her Paſſage taken by a Spaniſh Privateer, and carried into St. Sebaſtian.

An Academy is order'd to be built in Woolwich-Warren, for the Inſtruction of the Novices belonging to the Train in the Mathematicks and Arts of Gunnery and Fortification.

October 3. The Lords of the Admiralty have been pleaſed to appoint Capt. Rupert Warren, Commander of the Greyhound Man of War.

All the Officers belonging to the Grand Fleet at Spithead, are order'd on board their reſpective Ships, and none of the Sailors ſuffer'd on any Account whatever to go on ſhore.

October 6. Seven Hundred Men of Cornwallis's Regiment of Marines are embark'd on board Sir John Norris's Squadron, beſides ſeveral Companies out of other Regiments

CHARLES-TOWN, December 26.

Monday Night and Tueſday we had a violent Gale of Wind, in which Mr. Harden (one of our Pilots) loſt his Boat, in five Fathom Hole, but Capt. Schermerhorn happily being at Anchor there, perceiv'd her ſinking, and after unreeffing all his Ropes, ſent out his Boat to the Relief of the People, whom he ſav'd. Mr Mackay's Sloop was alſo drove aſhore on James Iſland, in the ſame Gale of Wind.

The Revenge Privateer, fitted out in England with 18 Carriage and 12 Swivel Guns, commanded by Capt. James Wimble, was loſt in November laſt on Atling's Keys. And

About the ſame Time was alſo loſt on Alaro Keys, in her Paſſage from this Place for Providence, the Polly & Betſey Snow of London, lately commanded by Capt. George Bruce; which Advice is brought by Capt. Sikes who arrived here laſt Week from Providence

Laſt Week Capt. Norton, in the Revenge Privateer ſail'd on a Cruiſe

We hear that the Scudamore Snow, Capt. Middleton, in her Paſſage to Briſtol, from this Place, was taken by the Spaniards and carried into the Caracccas.

We

We hear from Wilmington in North-Carolina, that Capt. Hall is arrived there from Antigua, where he says Rum was so scarce that it was sold at Four Shillings and Six Pence per Gallon, and Rice Three Pounds per Cent.

On Thursday arrived here a small French Sloop, taken on the Coast of Carraccas by the New Revenge, a Rhode-Island Privateer, commanded by Capt. James Allan, who, 'tis said, has taken two other Prizes, but the Particulars not being yet come to Hand, must be deferred 'till our next.

We hear that the Sloop lately commanded by Captain Lightwood, which was taken and made a Privateer of by Don Lorenzo, was drove ashore and stove to Pieces at the Matanzes, and that two Vessels lately sail'd from Augustine for the Havannah, with 60,000 Pieces of Eight.

The General Assembly is adjourn'd to the 18th Day of January next.

Last Monday Morning Mr. Pharoah and Mr. Osborn, two of our Pilots, went on Board the Dolphin from Jamaica, with Men to assist Mr Harden (another of our Pilots) in bringing the said Ship into this Port, she being deserted by her Commander and Crew on Friday the 18th, who supposed Mr. Harden's Boat to have been a Spanish Privateer; but Capt Hodder at his Arrival here, on the Description he gave of the Privateer, was inform'd she was but a Pilot Boat, whereon he return'd to the Ship with the Assistance of Capt. Arthur Gould and three of his Men; but after Mr. Pharoah and Mr. Osborn arrived on board, the Gale of Wind wherein Mr Harden lost his Boat came on, and they desired Capt. Hodder to lend them a spare Hawser he had upon Deck, but he refused it, and so they lost their Boat.
